Two named to 'Outstanding Young Women of America'

The Board of Advisors for the Outstanding Young Women of America awards program, announced this week that two women with ties to Appomattox County have been selected for inclusion in the 1980 edition of Outstanding Young Women of America.

Sally Ann Harvey, of 731 Teasley Lane, Apt. 104, Denton, Texas, and Gail Bartlett Pankey, of Route 2, Box 66, Beford, Va., have both been named to the list of Outstanding Young Women of America.

The Outstanding Young Women of America program is designed to honor and encourage exceptional young women between the ages of 21 and 36 who have distinguished themselves in their homes, their professions, and their communities. Their accomplishments, the results of dedication, service and leadership, are qualities which deserve to be recognized and remembered.

The women are nominated by leading women's organizations, college alumni associations, and public officials. Chairman of the program's advisory board is Mrs. Dexter Arnold, honorary president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Sally and Gail, along with approximately 15,000 fellow Outstanding Young Women of America from across the United States, will be presented in the prestigious annual awards volume. In addition, they are now being considered for one of the 51 state awards to be presented to those women who have made the most noteworthy contributions in their individual states.

From these 51 state winners, the Ten Outstanding Young Women of America will be chosen. The ten national winners will then be honored at the annual awards luncheon to be held this fall in Washington, D. C.

College students

Explore job market

Lynchburg-area college students home for the holidays will be able to explore the job market in their hometown at the Greater Lynchburg Chamber of Commerce's annual Career Awareness Day December 30.

It'll be held at Heritage High School from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Representatives from 29 businesses and industries will be attending to discuss their companies with the college students. The Career Awareness Day program provides an excellent opportunity for such interaction between the representatives and the students. While some students are seeking information about specific companies, others want suggestions on writing resumes and cover letters or courses to take for individual career goals.

The purpose of the program is to give students who live in Lynchburg but may attend college elsewhere a chance to explore the job market in their hometown and the requirements for entering into it.

The 14th annual Career Awareness Day is organized by GLCC's Career Awareness Task Force, headed by R. Nick Markham of Leggetts.

Those companies participating include: Appalachian Power Company, Babcock & Wilcox, Benchmark Systems, Central Fidelity Banks, Central Va. Community College, City of Lynchburg, Colonial American Bank, Coopers & Lybrand, Craddock-Terry Shoe Co., First & Merchants National Bank, General Electric Co., Leggetts, Lewis Restaurant Corporation, Limitorque Corporation, Lynchburg Board of Realtors, Lynchburg Foundry, Lynchburg Public Schools, Lynchburg Training School, Mead Paperboard Products, Meredith/Burda, National Cash Register, Nationwide Insurance Company, Owens-Illinois, J. C. Penney, Thalhimers, United Virginia Bank, Va. Employment Commission, Va. Fibre Corporation, Wiley & Wilson.

Deck the Table, Too!

The pretty accessories of Christmas should adorn the dinner table as well as the rest of the house. Silver bells, holly and twinkling lights come to dinner, making every meal a festive occasion.

Dinner napkins take their place in the holiday festivities by being colorful and conveniently disposable. Combined with Yuletide treasures, they set a lovely table. And the holiday hostess knows that without trouble, she can vary her table settings.

YES, VARA, THERE IS A SANTA CLAUS. Mrs. Vara Stanley is the lucky winner of a $50.00 'Shopping Spree' certificate from Holiday House, Main Street, Lynchburg. When Mrs. Stanley completed the entry form and dropped it into the fishbowl late in the summer, she forgot all about the incident until a call last week informed her that she was a winner. "Nobody knows what a blessing it was," said Mrs. Stanley, "I didn't have a lot to shop with until this happened. God does answer prayers. I do appreciate the generosity of the Holiday House so much."

Heads up for a happy holiday season to all of our lovely patrons. We look forward to seeing you during the holidays and throughout the coming year.

For Christmas

Ten Commandments

By Shirley W. Walton
Extension Agent

Each year I enjoy sharing with you one of my favorite Christmas selections. As you pause and catch a second breath from your busy preparations, may each of you find time to share the Ten Commandments for Christmas with others.

I. Thou shall not leave "Christ" out of Christmas, making it Xmas. To most minds "X" stands not for Christ, but for the algebraic unknown.

II. Thou shalt not value thy gifts by their cost, for many shall signify love that is more blessed and beautiful than silver and, gold.

III. Thou shalt give thyself with thy gifts. Thy love, thy personality, and thy service shall increase the value of thy gifts an hundredfold and he that receiveth it shall treasurer it forever.

VI. Thou shalt not let Santa Claus take the place of Christ, least Christmas become a fairy tale rather than a sublime reality in the spiritual realm.

V. Thou shalt not burden thy servant. The shop girl, the mail carrier, and the merchant should have thy consideration.

VI. Thou shalt not neglect the church. Its Christmas services are planned to help spiritualize the Christmas season for thee, the child and thy household.

VII. Thou shalt not neglect the needy. Let thy bountiful blessings be shared with the many who will go hungry and cold unless thou art generous at Christmas.

VIII. Thou shalt be as a little child. Christmas is the day of the Christ Child; not until thou hast become in spirit as a little child art thou ready to enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.

IX. Thou shalt prepare thy soul for Christmas. Verily most of us spend much time and money getting gifts ready, but few seconds in preparing our souls.

X. Thou shalt give thy heart to Christ. Let thy Christmas list have Christ as the top and thy heart as the gift. In so doing, thou are as the Wise Men of old and verily thou shalt find thyself born again on Christmas Day.

The entire Extension Staff joins me in wishing each of you a joyous holiday season.

If you have a homemaking question or problem, you may call 352-8244 or write P. O. Box 488, Appomattox, Va. 24522.

Merry Christmas and have a good week!

Special Announcement: On January 2, 1981, 10:30 A.M. the wool contest participants will be featured on Channel 18-WSET-TV on the METRO Program.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK
Raspberry Salad

2 small packages frozen red raspberries and juice
3 ¾ cups boiling water
3 3oz. packages red raspberry flavored gelatin
1 (No. 2½) can crushed pineapple and juice
1 cup chopped walnuts or pecans
3 bananas, diced

Take raspberries out of freezer long enough to partially thaw. Pour boiling water over gelatin, and stir to dissolve completely. Stir in pineapple and juice. Refrigerate until just starting to set around edges. Fold in nuts, bananas, raspberries and juice. Put in large mold and set in refrigerator to congeal.

Thanks to Miss Annie Hancock for sharing this nutritious and delicious salad with us.

Happiness is 4-H

By FRANK H. SWEET
Extension Agent

The Christmas holiday season provides an excellent opportunity for older 4-H'ers to work on Achievement Records. These records are due in the Extension Office by January 28. Teen 4-H'ers are asked to give us a call if they need special help with their achievement records. Forms and instructions are available from the 4-H Office.

Members of the 4-H Teen Leaders provided Christmas joy for 19 boys and girls last week during the Annual 4-H Christmas Party. The special guests were treated to a supper of hot dogs, potato chips and cookies, games and activities and a visit from Santa Claus. Many thanks to the individuals who donated toys for the party and to the Spout Spring Progressive Homemakers for their support.

The Virginia Game Commission will no longer provide the wildlife feed patch annual seed mixture after this coming spring. The Game Commission will emphasize the planting of perennial shrubs such as autumn life and bicolor lespedeza for wildlife food and cover.

Individuals wishing to continue to plant annual feed mixtures may do so by planting grain sorghum and sunflowers or soybeans in small patches.

• • •

Many 4-H'ers have received the 4-H pine seedling order forms for ordering loblolly pine trees. Please remember that these forms are due back in the Extension Office by January 23. All 4-H'ers will enjoy watching the trees grow that they have planted.
